"Colours are the universal language of the soul"
wrote Wassili Kandisky.
Each notebook is a "dialogue" between complementary colours: the colour of the cover, the colour of the print and the colour with which the edges of the notebook are coloured.
The two covers of each
notebook are quite unique:
one cover is in Italian and the other in English.

GOTHIC

Lovers of gothic atmospheres, stories imbued with mystery and feelings where shadows prevail on light will not resist the charm of these notebooks made from recycled paper.
The rough straw paper shows a graphic reminiscent of gothic alphabet typefaces that are printed in strong contrasting black and fuchsia.

CAVE CANEM

W034 small copy-book

size 12x17 cm - pz. 40
ean 2303400000006

"Cave canem" was often written on the entrance to villas in ancient Rome. Nowadays we write "Beware of the dog", suggesting that dogs are fierce and threatening animals...

We prefer to think that man's best friend is naturally kind, gentle and... intelligent. The covers depict 4 dog breeds that wink at just as many personalities to be discovered by those who purchase the Notebooks and who can read the page of text printed in the background.

ORGANIC LINES

These mini notebooks are take inspiration from the organic design philosophy that takes its cue from the natural world. The shape of a leaf, the texture of tree bark, a section of a fruit or vegetable, the pattern of a crystal...

all these may serve as the model for an item of furniture or an industrial product. Alternatively, as in the case of these notebooks with their velvety Ricuoio soft covers, it can also inspire a form of graphic design with subtle, natural lines.

small copy-book

size 12x17 cm - pz. 40

ean 9461000000000

Cunning, sly, enigmatic, proud, gentle... it's an almost impossible task to define a cat! Better to leave it to the lovely drawings by Nicoletta Costa.

Made in strawpaper "cartapaglia".
